

MATHEMATICS AND COMPUTER SCIENCE TEACHING OPPORTUNITIESSUMMER

2008 <http://cty.jhu.edu/summer/employment>

Who: Johns Hopkins University-Center for Talented Youth We are seeking enthusiastic math and computer science instructors and teaching assistants to instruct in our summer programs for gifted elementary, middle, and high school students. CTY offers intense, 3-week academic programs for highly talented students from across the country and around the world. Where: Residential site locations around the country: California, Massachusetts, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and Rhode Island. Day site locations in the Baltimore-Washington, Los Angeles, and San Diego areas. When: Session 1: June 26-July 19 Session 2: July 19-August 9 Instructors and teaching assistants can work one or two sessions. Why: CTY staff work with exceptional students, make contacts and friendships with dynamic colleagues, and gain valuable teaching experience in a rigorous academic setting. Courses: We offer a wide variety of courses, including Geometry * Problem Solving & Reasoning * Applications & Modeling * Cryptology * Probability and Game Theory * Number Theory * Introduction to Robotics * Fundamentals of Computer Science. For a complete list of math courses, including course descriptions and sample syllabi, please visit: http://cty.jhu.edu/summer/employment/math\_cs.html. Salary: Instructors start at $2,100 to $3,000 per 3-week session. Teaching assistants earn $1,100 per 3-week session. Room and board are provided at our residential sites. Lunch is provided at the day sites.

TO DOWNLOAD AN APPLICATION AND LEARN MORE ABOUT OUR PROGRAMS AND SITES: Please visit <http://cty.jhu.edu/summer/employment>, or contact us at 410-735-6185 or ctysummer@jhu.edu. Johns Hopkins University is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.